

APOLOGETICS RESEARCH SOCIETY

Certificate in Christian Apologetics Program

Dates: Friday March 6, & Saturday March 7, 2009

Time: 5:30-9:30 PM & 8:30 AM-4:00 PM

WORLD VIEW APOLOGETICS

This class will help the student understand why the Christian worldview makes sense, and the flaws and false assumptions within secular humanism, and other world viewpoints. This is the third in a series of classes toward a certificate in Christian Apologetics. The instructor will be Dr. Robert Kurka; professor of Christian Apologetics at Lincoln College in Illinois. The class will be Friday evening and Saturday . Dr. Kurka will teach for the Mission Region on Sunday morning. Credit for completing the class will apply toward a certificate in Christian Apologetics. To receive credit for the course, there will be assigned readings, a paper to be submitted, as well as an exam. Students who want to simply audit the class are definitely invited. The cost of the two-part series is $40 per student. If you can only make one session, the cost will be $20. A light dinner is included on Friday.

Required readings in order to receive credit: John Oakes, "Apologetics and the Christian World View/Part 1" article. www.evidenceforchristianity.org and Paul Copan, That's Just Your Interpretation (Baker Books, 2001), 240 pp., $22.00 (ISBN: 0801063833).

Extra Credit : Nancy Pearcey, Total Truth (Crossway, 2004), James Sire's Why Should Anyone Believe Anything At All? (IVP, 1994), and Paul Copan, True for You, But Not For Me (Bethany House, 1998). Also any reasonable book on the topic upon approval of the instructor.
